Rector's Message

Dear parishioners and friends,

Weddings can be wonderful events when family, friends and communities gather together. Scripture reveals a God who promises us a new life overflowing with joy and blessing. The language of human love and wedding celebrations are a powerful example of God's promises.

In the first reading, Isaiah tells us that God delights to love us as a bridegroom loves his new bride. Jerusalem is given a new name and royal crown to reflect the new relationship with God and God's people.

In John's gospel, a wedding at Cana becomes the first public occasion of Jesus' glory. Mary, the mother of Jesus, notes the embarrassing shortage of wine and intercedes with her son. Although his hour – of crucifixion and glory – has not yet come, Jesus responds to the need by changing the water into an abundant supply of sparkling wine. A new era of blessing replaces the old. But even in the midst of joy, we are aware of Jesus' passion and death. Just as Mary stands with her son at the wedding, so too, Mary will be standing by the cross when Jesus' glory is fully revealed.

The giving of gifts is an important part of a wedding. God gives untold gifts to each member of the Church. God's gifts to us flow from the one Spirit and have one purpose: to build up the Church so that she can be an effective witness of Christ's love for the world. All of us share in the mission of the Church. All of us share in the blessings God gives us in Christ. Let us use our gifts as members of St. John's for doing God's work in the world.

God bless you and have a great week.

Fr. Michael

Processional Hymn# 163 When Christ's Appearing Was Made Known

The Gathering of the Community

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glory To God

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly king, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant Let us pray that we may remain faithful to the Covenant.

The community prays silently. The celebrant then says the collect.

Faithful and loving God, your Son Jesus shared with ordinary people in the joy of a marriage feast. Set for us the table and pour for us the delightful wine of your covenant, bring us close to you and to one another and warm our hearts with your own love. Make our lives become a feast, an unending song of joy and praise to you, our living God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her vindication shines out like the dawn, and her salvation like a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your builder marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Choir Anthem With What Shall I Come Before the Lord – John Ness

PSALM REFRAIN

We feast on the riches of your house, O Lord.

Your love, O Lord, reaches to the heavens, and your faithfulness to the clouds. Your righteousness is like the strong mountains, your justice like the great deep; you save both man and beast, O Lord. R

How priceless is your love, O God! your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings. They feast upon the abundance of your house; you give them drink from the river of your delights. R

For with you is the well of life, and in your light we see light. R

Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, and your favour to those who are true of heart. R

PSALM 36:5-10

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ACCORDING TO JOHN People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Sermon

The Apostles Creed Let us confess the faith of our baptism.

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People Please kneel or sit for the prayers.

Response: Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table.
Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon + and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace All stand, and the celebrant addresses the people.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you. The assembly greets one another in the name of the Lord.

The Celebration of the Eucharist

The Preparation of the Gifts

Offertory Hymn #531 You Who Dwell in the Shelter of the Night
Parishioners share in gathering the offering of God's people. Each one as they are able, makes an offering to the Lord for the needs and responsibilities of the Church to be placed on the altar.

The Prayer Over The Gifts Read by celebrant.

Faithful God, you let us experience your love in this meal of friendship at the table of your Son Jesus Christ. Let him break for us the bread of life and pour for us his wine of joy, that we may be faithful to you and be brothers and sisters to one another, on account of him who shed for us the precious wine of his blood, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer #3

Sung Setting "The Mass of Creation" by Marty Haugen, copies in seat pockets.

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Preface for Sunday

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a holy people in Jesus Christ our Lord; you renew that mystery in bread and wine and nourish us, to show forth your glory in all the world.
We praise you Lord, with all the angels, in their song of joy.

(Sung) Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power, God of might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.
For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.

In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said,
"Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you."
Do this for the remembrance of me.
After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said,
"Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins."
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith. (Sung)
Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.
Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

So we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.
We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.
People Amen. (Sung)

The Lord's Prayer

The celebrant introduces the Lord's prayer in these or similar words:
Invited to the Lord's table and united by his Spirit, we pray now to our loving Father.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The celebrant breaks the consecrated bread for distribution, and says:
"I am the bread of life," says the Lord. "Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst."
All Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!

The celebrant invites the people to share in communion and says,

The gifts of God for the People of God.

All Thanks be to God.

Jesus Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Jesus Bread of life, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Jesus Prince of Peace you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.

Jesus Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
grant us your peace.

The celebrant and people then receive communion.

The body of Christ (given for you). The blood of Christ (shed for you).

The communicant responds each time, Amen.

This community of faith, welcomes to the Lord's table all who are baptized and who wish to be nourished with the Body and Blood of Christ.

During Communion, hymns may be sung and silence may be kept.

Communion Hymn #63 Eat This Bread, Drink This Cup

Children's Message

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant Let us pray. Standing, the community prays in silence.

We thank you, God our Father, for letting Jesus speak to us in this Eucharist his words of encouragement and joy and for pouring for us the wine of his new and everlasting covenant. Let our life become a feast of forgiveness and mutual service and of dedication to you, our living God. May this celebration be a foretaste of the happiness you prepare for us in your home. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Doxology

Celebrant Glory to God,

All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing & Dismissal

The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has formed you and called you to live with him and to serve one another. May God's grace sustain you always so that you can share your light with others. Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty, + the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

Celebrant Go in joyful hope to love and serve the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

PWRDF RESPONDS TO MASSIVE DESTRUCTION IN HAITI -
Action By Churches Together

January 13, 2010 - Hundreds, maybe thousands, of people were buried alive when a major earthquake struck Port-au-Prince, the capital of impoverished Haiti on Tuesday. The magnitude 7.0 quake sent panic-stricken people into the streets. Offices, hotels, houses and shops collapsed, and people were screaming "Jesus, Jesus", not knowing where to run. The presidential palace lay in ruins, and many churches have been destroyed. Members of ACT Alliance are already in place, assisting those affected by the earthquake. The ACT Secretariat in Geneva is coordinating the relief operations of its members, and more details will follow in the coming hours.

Massive destruction

The city is without electricity, the telephone network has broken down. The UN headquarter has collapsed. People are sitting in the streets with nowhere to go. The office of ACT member Christian Aid was destroyed, but staff were unharmed and are now responding to the emergency. John Nduna, the General Secretary of ACT Alliance expresses condolences with the affected families and with UN and other organizations that have lost their people in the buildings. World Council of Churches general secretary Rev. Dr Olav Fykse Tveit, also expresses condolences and solidarity with the people of Haiti. "Once again they have experienced the great burdens of anguish, damage, and death because of a natural catastrophe. They have already carried many burdens of political instability and poverty," Fykse Tveit says.

Hit again

In 2004 more than 3,000 people died because of Hurricane Jeanne which passed over the northwest city of Gonaives. The same area was hit again in 2008 when four tropical storm systems passed through the region. In 2004 political instability led to the ousting of the President Jean-Baptiste Aristide.
