

STORIES FROM THE RICH PAST OF OUR PARISH

Three more persons buried under the Church

After careful research by Andrew Eisenhauer and Ron Swan it is clear that there are three more persons buried under the church. These are:

Mr. John Creighton -1721 - Died November 8, 1807

Mrs. Lucy Creighton -1738 - Died November 14, 1832

Mr. Charles Creighton - 1795 - Died March 14, 1920

By unanimous approval of the Heritage Committee of the Parish of St. John's the following resolution was sent to Parish Council for approval:

Be it resolved that the following three names be added to the base of the memorial plaque situated on the floor of the church.....and request the Corporation to proceed to have this work completed as soon as possible and that these additional three names now be included on the master list of those interred within the foundation of the Parish Church of St. John's, Lunenburg.

This resolution was passed unanimously at the Parish Council Meeting of March 4, 2008
