

STORIES FROM THE RICH PAST OF OUR PARISH

Baron Byng and party at Lunenburg 14th day of August.1923

A public Holiday was declared. Handsome Decorations were throughout the town. After presentations Lord and Lady Byng received citizens at The Anglican Church of St. Johns, Royal Foundation. Lady Byng was especially interested in the Eagle Lectern presented by Mrs. Kaulbach, the widow of the late Sheriff Kaulbach. It appears that St. John's was well able to entertain the King's Representative.
